

QBR will post and link your review on the QBR website and BLACK INK, our book blog, for further discussion and comment. Books in all genre (fiction, nonfiction, poetry, children's, etc.) are welcomed. There is no fee for posting a review. All submissions are subject to editorial evaluation.

SUBMISSIONS GUIDELINES FOR REVIEWS

Please put your name, mailing and e-mail addresses, phone and fax numbers in the upper left-hand corner of the first page.

In the top left hand corner of every subsequent page, list your name, the title of the book (i.e. Reviewers name, Book Title, page 2 of 3) or, if your review covers two or more books, the genre (i.e. Reviewer's name, Health Books, page 2 of 3)

State the word count of your review.

Provide a headline suggestion in BOLD CAPS.

In the center of the first page, list:

TITLE OF THE BOOK
Subtitle of the book (if there is one)
Author (and illustrator if there is one)
Publisher, price of the book, number of pages
ISBN

Double space all text.

Provide the page number of any quotes used in parentheses after the quote.

Type your bio as you would like it to appear in italics at the close of your review.

Forward your review to QBR in any of the following ways:

On-line: reviews@qbr.com Note: In order to ensure that we can download your review when submitting on-line, please be sure to either 1) COPY it from your word processing program and PASTE it to the email file or 2) Save it as a "txt" file and attach it to your email file. Also, be aware that we use Microsoft Word. Be sure to forward it in "text" file format if you use any other word processing program.

Snail mail or Fax: QBR The Black Book Review
PO Box 170
Hastings on Hudson, N.Y. 10032
Tel: 212.348.1681
Fax: 646.290.5970

All submitted materials are strictly confidential until publication.

Within the limits of our production schedule, we will make every effort to go over edited copy with you if you provide a telephone number at which you can be reached. Please call if you have any questions.